30-Day Post General

Dear Mr. Whyrick:

In a follow-up to our discussion, I have contacted my campaign software technical support and cannot add an additional disbursement field to account for contribution refunds from prior cycles. I have not collected any contributions, nor will collect any contributions for the 2008 cycle. I have added an explanation to each refund in the purpose field that explains that the refund is from the 2006 cycle.

I hope that this will satisfy the reporting requirements.

Thanks you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Donna F. Winterson". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
